Pete's Diary is a blues-based rock trio based in Lake County, IL. Their debut EP, All Screwed Up, is streaming on all music platforms. The band also plays classic rock favorites by Led Zeppelin, Jimi Hendrix, Joe Walsh, Van Halen, ZZ Top, and more. The trio includes Ryan "Rocky" Johnson on drums and Mac McRae on lead vocals and bass.

Front man, Peter Dankelson, is known for his guitar playing and inspirational story. Peter is missing his left ear and plays using only four fingers on his fretting hand. His autobiography How I Learned to Rock My Life details how he persevered through more than 30 surgeries due to birth defects from Goldenhar Syndrome and taught himself how to play the guitar. Pete's Diary, originally created for Peter's motivational speaking, has evolved into the hottest new rock band on social media with more than 700k followers around the world! .

PETER DANKELSON

Speaker Bio

Peter Dankelson has been called, “A champion of the human spirit,” by Stevie Dacanay of the band Buckcherry and a “Difference maker in life,” by Mike Babcock, NHL Head Coach 2002 - 2019 and a 2x Olympic Gold-Medalist.

Peter motivates audiences to live their best life by choosing a positive mindset and finding self-acceptance. He shares his medical journey with Goldenhar Syndrome, living life with a facial difference, and overcoming his hearing loss and other disabilities to teach himself how to play the guitar. Peter demonstrates how music helps him express his emotions, and he encourages audiences to find their own creative outlet.

Peter has been honored as a Patient of Courage by the American Society of Plastic Surgeons and a Champion of Hope by Global Genes. He is an ambassador for Children’s Craniofacial Association, the front man for the Pete’s Diary band, and co-author of his autobiography, How I Learned to Rock My Life: The Peter Dankelson Story. He has performed with professional musicians including Joe Bonamassa, Tyler Bryant, Jared James Nichols, Dirty Honey, and Buckcherry. Music Radar named him one of 2020’s Best Online Guitar Personalities.

“Some people can teach us better than others how to make a difference in our lives, and Peter Dankelson is one of them.”
